You have the right to file a grievance about any of your medical care or service. If you want to file a grievance, please use this form. There is a process you need to follow to file a grievance. Your health plan must, by law, give you an answer within 30 days. If you have any questions, please feel free to call your doctor’s office or health plan at the phone numbers on the back of this form. You may also call the phone numbers on your health identification (ID) card. If you think that waiting for an answer from your health plan will hurt your health, call and ask for an “Expedited Review.”

NOTICE TO THE MEMBER OR YOUR REPRESENTATIVE:

The California Department of Managed Health Care is responsible for regulating health care service plans. If you have a grievance against your Health Plan, you should first telephone your Health Plan at 1-800-756-7039 and use your Health Plan's grievance process before contacting the Department. Utilizing this grievance procedure does not prohibit any potential legal rights or remedies that may be available to you. If you need help with a grievance involving an emergency, a grievance that has not been satisfactorily resolved by your Health Plan, or a grievance that has remained unresolved for more than 30 days, you may call the Department for assistance. You may also be eligible for an Independent Medical Review (IMR). If you are eligible for IMR, the IMR process will provide an impartial review of medical decisions made by a Health Plan related to the medical necessity of a proposed service or treatment, coverage decisions for treatment that are experimental or investigational in nature, and payment disputes for emergency or urgent medical services. The Department also has a toll-free telephone number (1-888-HMO-2219) and a TDD line (1-877-688-9891) for the hearing and speech impaired. The Department's Internet Web site <http://www.hmohelp.ca.gov> has complaint forms, IMR application forms and instructions online.
